

SHREWSBURY PUBLIC LIBRARY
POLICY MANUAL

Video Game Policy

As part of the library's mission to provide for the popular material interests of the community, the library offer video games for circulation. Due to limited resources for the collection, we have focused on one format, namely Playstation 2. The games are intended for use on home equipment.

1. A patron may check out one game at a time.
2. Games may be checked out for one week
3. Fines for overdue games will be $.50 per day.
4. Games may not be placed on hold and will not circulate to other libraries.
5. Games must be returned with all circulating parts, including disc, instruction booklet, and case.
6. Games must also be returned in good condition. Disks must not be broken, scratched or cracked.
7. Full replacement costs of $50 per game will be charged for any game not returned with all components and in good condition. A patron may alternately purchase a replacement game, which must be a brand new copy in its original packaging. Used games will not be accepted as replacement.
